Safety Representative of the Year Award 2018

The award

The Safety Representative of the Year winner will be presented with a Certificate and a €600 cheque sponsored by The CPL Institute, formerly Nifast. The Prize will be presented to the overall winner at the NISO Annual Awards Presentation Dinner on Friday, 12 October 2018, in the Great Southern Hotel, Killarney, Co. Kerry.

How to win the award?

There are no hard and fast criteria. The judges will be interested in details of specific contributions a Safety Representative has made which resulted in positive advances in workplace health and safety.

Such contributions might include cases where a Safety Representative has:

- Identified a situation which might have resulted in injury or ill health and which has been remedied
- Found a solution to a specific workplace problem, for example, a manual handling or a transport problem
- Helped to rectify an ergonomic problem, for example, given advice for the best conditions for VDU/DSE use
- Identified health and safety training needs or made a major contribution to health and safety training

- Identified situations where people may have been exposed to airborne contaminants such as dust, fumes or gases
- Raised the level of health and safety awareness in the organisation
- Organised initiatives to promote employee wellbeing, health promotion, etc.
